SPIRITUAL SPOT

I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need." Philippians 4:11, 12.

Paul knew what it was like to have too little or too much. And whether he had lots of things or lacked things, he learned how to be content, or satisfied, with his situation. Paul concluded, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." Philippians 4:13.

We must learn to do the same. Take time to count your blessings. If a person still has both arms, both legs, all 10 fingers, and all 10 toes, they have something to be thankful for. Or ask yourself, What talents or abilities do I have? What can I do to make use of them? Thinking about good things will help you to be content with your situation. See Philippians 4:8.

Concerning our needs, Scripture instructs us, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Matthew 6:33. "Be careful [anxious] for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God." Philippians 4:6.

In conclusion, let us become content with our situation and thankful for whatever we have. "Rejoice evermore. Pray without ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18.

*For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given: and the government shall be upon His shoulder:
and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God,
The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.
Isaiah 9:6*

Think About It

Think about it, the New Jerusalem has come down from Heaven and it is the end of the Millennium. Now, this is you looking on, and you made it. You experienced many struggles, and temptations while on Earth. You managed to keep your eyes on Jesus. You are only there because of Him and so you look on to your Savior and King. You feel emotions and these are deep as you can feel His loving words as a remembrance unto you. It has been 1,000 years and they have passed.

Then something very disturbing happens, you notice that the dead who have rejected salvation are coming back to life. As you see this, they carry signs of the consequences of their previous diseases. That sin that kept them from coming unto Jesus. They look troubled and are conscious. You survey the many vast numbers and you remember people you knew—perhaps it is a family member, a neighbor or a co-worker. These you remember, you have cared about, and yet they would not make a decision for Jesus! You can say a name...as we all know now, whom we walk with on Earth, which has not thought to follow Jesus.

The City has landed on the Mount of Olives and Jesus is crowned in full view of everyone. The sight is magnificent with many saved people singing, “Jesus the Lamb.” And, then the record book is opened and God pronounces judgment on those that have chosen evil. When this happens, the wicked realize this is their final reward. As everyone watches Jesus, and His life story as it is given to all, all people can see His sufferings, and how humanity was saved.

Then, as before, you remember the people you saw previously and they are still watching. They are thinking about you. They remember you, too. And, as the faces turn from anger to sadness, you feel a sorrow. A deep sorrow and you know they are asking...”Why did you not tell me? Why did you not try harder to help me? If you knew this was to happen, why did you not try more to get me out of the world?” Then you begin to cry for the loss of those you have loved. The people that are now doomed. (Revelation 21:4) And, so a much deeper cry comes for all the things you could have done to help more people choose.

Only time has left us and time is over. And you cry, “If I had taken more time.” I would show Jesus to them better, stronger, and not given up. Jesus wants to tell you now, there is TIME and you can still help others that need to Meet Jesus! A Call to Action has been measured by Jesus. Go and do...the Great Commission! Jesus has gone out before you and you only have to speak about me and tell about me. Plant a seed of knowledge with others about Christ Jesus today!

THINK about it – the Call to Action is Now.
